

ANOTHER SEASON!

Seasons change, and with them change fashions and the wants of man and womankind. It is the province of the merchant, who proposes to meet continuously these changes and wants, to see to it that his stock is replete with seasonable goods at the proper times.

MY PURCHASES

—FOR THE—

Fall of 1888.

Have been made, and I am confident that I have a stock of goods that will prove unusually attractive to the public.

DRY GOODS,

NOTIONS,
BOOTS & SHOES,
HATS & CAPS,
FURNISHINGS.

DRESS GOODS.

My Dress Goods Department will be of special interest to all lovers of nice, desirable fabrics. Come and see how I sell them, even if you do not want to buy.

My stock of BOOTS and SHOES fresh from the factories defies comparison, and prices therein will be a revelation.

It were enough to say that my present Fall Stock was up to my previous standard, but it is superior in quality, variety and prices.

The same circumstance as heretofore enables me to sell on the shortest profits—that is, I sell for CASH only. This fact accounts for the great saving to you, the public.

I ask for a continuance of a liberal share of the public patronage, because I think my low prices and nice goods have entitled me to it.

There is nothing to be lost, but much to be gained both in pleasure and profit, in visiting my store where every attention will be given you. Call early and often.

MILLINERY.

My Millinery Department under the management of Mrs. J. P. Wayland,

will continue to supply the newest and neatest things in Bonnets and Hats, and the ladies are invited to see them.

FIRST FLOOR BACK.

DRESS MAKING.

A new and prominent feature of my establishment is the Dress Making Department, where dresses can be made on short notice in the LATEST AND MOST FASHIONABLE STYLES.

Capt. Blair remarked in his speech here that he got the tariff in his head and the devil in his heart every time he thought of a Democrat. That's the most candid Republican platform yet enunciated.

Ladies' cloaks and wraps at Saunders', just arrived. Here is a temptation for ladies, hard to resist. Made after the most approved late styles, of good material, perfect in shape, and in all sizes, this lot of cloaks will prove to be superior to anything ever seen here in this line.

Owing to an accident, by which several cars loaded with coal were derailed and set fire to at the junction of the New River and Clinch Valley Divisions, trains did not for some days run through to Bluefield. Passengers were transferred at Graham, but Tazewell stock men had to hold their cattle over till the coal should be burned out.

Ladies, when you want anything in the way of a hat or bonnet, a fashionably made dress, neckwear, underwear, gloves, shoes, a wrap, or any kind of notion, and want it so nice as to wish to ransom New York for it, call at Saunders'. He can fill the bill, and not take all your pocket change either.

Rev. Jno. T. Stover, of Holston Conference M. E. Church South, says, "The use of a trial bottle of Simons Relief last winter, has 'caught' me into the predicament of being compelled to keep a supply on hand. My wife says she can't do without it. It is doubtless equal to the best household relief." Try it for Neuralgia. Manufactured by Chapman, White, Lyons & Co.

ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY.

About 4 o'clock this morning a bold attempt was made to break into and rob several stores on Main street. Mrs. John Brittain, living opposite Central Hotel was unwell and awake at the time and called her husband's attention to a noise down stairs. On going to the window he saw two men run from I. Frank & Co's store, one up the street the other down. On examination it was found that a hole had been bored through the doors of Greever & Co's store, but an entrance not effected. At Frank & Co's store the grating had been removed from a window in which a broken pane gave access to the bolts. A few silk handkerchiefs from a show case are missed, but nothing more. It was here that the thieves were alarmed. An attempt had also been made on Hargrave's drug store. Two gentlemen sleeping in the rear of Frank & Co's store room were not awakened. No clue as yet.

PILES! PILES! ITCHING PILES.

Among the many attempts at fraudulent registration among the negro laborers on the Clinch Valley railroad, a young kid from Rice's depot made oath that he was 21 years of age. The fraud was so clear on its face that a letter was written his family, the answer to which discloses the fact that he is not nearly so old.
